 We are to have a Free Mass Meeting at East Providence on Thursday the 1st of Sept., commencing at 10 o'clock and closing at 11 o'clock p.m. Bro. Gloucester will be present, and I am sure we will have a large meeting.
 We have got up a club of 106 for Dr. Bais's 'Fact for the People,' many of which members of the 'G. & A.' are. We are much interested and willing to pay the subscription price. Yours Respectfully, NATHANIEL KNIGHT.

It is painful to contemplate a man like Daniel Webster degrading himself in defence of a law to place his obligations above the sacred ties of religion and morality. It is painful to know that Daniel Webster is only obliged to make this course by the support of a body of Bostonians, who sro to him as brethren of his nostrils."

the dreadful mortality continues without but the total deaths for the week were 20 including those from the other camps.

The deaths from the other camps are not stated. This shows an increase at the end of the week.

INTERVIEW, MON. AUG. 23, 1853.
The Santa Fe mail has arrived.
Considerable difficulties prevailed throughout New Orleans, and the city was in a question, and the Mexicans were bold in their expressions of opinion.

THURSDAY, AUG. 26, 1853. A battery of six cannons and other implements of war, are being prepared at the arsenal, destined for the troops of the United States. Several comp cannons regulars are on their way.
